Akaroa | Academic Integrity: Maori Principles

Recognising that Maori is an official language of New Zealand, the University provides for students who may wish to use the Maori language in assessment.

A student may present work for assessment in te reo

International students and/or students attending overseas institutions are subject to ad eundem status procedures, outlined elsewhere in the University of Canterbury Calendar. It is also the case that this policy focuses on credit transfer at undergraduate level. At postgraduate level, credit for prior learning is normally considered on a case-by-case basis alongside issues like availability of a supervisor and other resources.

More information on 'Credit Transfer for Students from New Zealand Institutions: Guiding Principles', is available in the UC Policy Library, www.canterbury.ac.nz/ucpolicy

This policy provides guidance for Departments/Schools in situations where students miss tests or other assessment deadlines due to involvement in
