

Parking and Traffic Statute 2017

Last Modified

2. Road markings and signs on the University campus which are the same as those provided for in any regulations made pursuant to the Land Transport Act 1998 or any Act or regulation passed in amendment or substitution thereof, shall have the same meaning and must be observed at all times. Any person who fails to comply with the direction of any road marking, or sign, commits an offence against this statute and shall be liable to a fine.
3. Motor vehicles may only park in spaces which are specifically marked out for parking of motor vehicles and in accordance with any particular parking requirements specified for any such area. Vehicles are parked at the sole risk of the owner or driver and the University will not accept liability for any loss or damage thereto. The University reserves the right to clamp or to tow away any incorrectly parked vehicles. Any vehicles clamped or towed away may be recovered after payment of any fines/costs incurred in clamping or towing away and/or storing of the vehicle.
4. Motorcycles and bicycles must be parked in the areas specifically designated for them and in accordance with any particular parking requirements specified for any such area. Motorcycles and bicycles are parked at the sole risk of the owner or rider and the University will not be liable for any loss or damage thereto. If incorrectly parked, they may be removed to those areas or, at the discretion of the University, clamped or towed away. Any bicycles or motorcycles clamped or towed away may be recovered after payment of any fines/costs incurred in clamping or towing away and/or storing the same. The University will not accept any liability for damage caused to any motorcycle or bicycle locking mechanism if such motorcycle shall be as determined by the Vice-Chancellor and specified in the University

Parking and Traffic Statute 2003

1. (a) Drivers and riders must obey all markings and signs on the University campus and any directions which may be given by any person authorised by the Vice-Chancellor to enforce the provisions of this statute (a Parking Attendant/Security Officer), who is hereby authorised to obtain the name and/or address of anyone on the campus when they deem it necessary for the purposes of enforcement of this statute.
 - (b) Any person on the campus, who, having been requested by a Parking Attendant/Security Officer to give to him or her the name and/or address of such person shall neglect or refuse promptly to give that information or who shall give to such Parking Attendant / Security Officer a false or inaccurate name and/or address shall commit an offence against this statute and shall be liable to a fine for each such offence.
2. Road markings and signs which are the same as those provided for in any Regulations made pursuant to the Transport Act 1962 or any Act or regulation passed in substitution thereof, shall have the same meaning and must be observed at all times. Any person who fails to comply with restrictions in respect to parking in reserved, disabled, and visitor spaces, or in areas not otherwise marked out for parking shall apply day and night throughout the year.

6. (a) Any person who fails to observe the requirements of this statute commits an offence against this statute.
 - (b) Any person who commits an offence against this statute will be liable to a fine for each offence and may be issued with an offence notice by a Parking Attendant/Security Officer.
 - (c) Fines payable in respect of offences committed under this statute, the time for payment thereof and the amount of reduction thereof for prompt payment, if any, shall be as determined by the Vice-Chancellor and specified in the University Calendar from time to time.
 - (d) The Campus Services Manager if so requested by a member of the University staff or a student upon whom a fine or other penalty has been imposed hereunder, will review, or arrange for a review of the amount of any such fine and/or its imposition. Such review shall be initiated by written application, to be made to the Campus Services Manager within 14 days of the date of the offence notice, setting out details of the fine or other penalty in respect of which review is sought, the reason the review is being sought and all information upon which the application is based. The review will take place in accordance with any rules established from time to time.
7. Parking permits will be issued to University staff and students on application and payment of the appropriate fees. Fees payable shall be as determined by the Vice-Chancellor from time to time.
