Declaration

I have read the documents referred to on this application form in relation to suitability criteria and I have answered all of the above questions truthfully. I understand the non-disclosure of anything that may come up in a Police Check may affect my enrolment.

Students are required to declare all matters that may have a bearing on their suitability for social work education and practice as soon as they become aware of them. This requirement exists at any time during the application process and persists whilst accepted into or enrolled in any course of study toward recognised social work qualifications. Where students do not declare such issues (i.e. the student wilfully
